Council Tables Recreation Motion

St. Albert Town Council will decide on June 26th if it should split the Parks and Recreation Department into two separate departments. Council generally felt it needed more time to study the motion that such a split be put in effect made by Councillor Bakker at Monday's Council meeting. Mr. Bakker severely lam-basted the present set-up. In a lengthy tirade he criticized the "lack of communication". He feels that Council's orders are not being carried out by the Department superintendent. "Is there a deliberate attempt at sabbotage Council?", he asked: Mr. Bakker also voiced strong disagreement with a report to Council issued by the Mayor. In this report the Mayor criticized a trend to use Recreation as a "political football". Mr. Bakker maintains he has no intentions of using the Department as such, but that he is completely fed up with the way it is operated and "the vague answers" it provides to Council's questions. Mr. Bakker said he suspects "information control". He

St. Albert's Library

Twenty years of using make-do facilities will have come to an end when the Lieutenant Governor Dr. J. W. Grant MacEwan officially opens the $85,000 St. Albert Centennial Library, Saturday, June 24th at 2 p.m. The new Centennial Library which is situated to the immediate east of the Civic Centre was designed by the firm of Dennis and Freda O'Connor and Maltby, Architects. Contractors for the building are Summit Con-struction Ltd. The modern glass walled building features an open stairway connecting the two floors. The Library provides 6,000 sq. ft. of floor space, with the main floor housing the Children's Library, the Reading Room and the Reference Library. The lower floor features the Main Library, the Art Exhibit area, and the

The St. Albert Library was originally started as a reading club for members of the Women's Institute and their families in 1949. The ladies collected 50 used books and opened up shop.
One year later, with a budget totalling $200 made up of contributions by the Town of St. Albert, the County of Sturgeon and the Women's Institute, membership was opened to the public. Further expansion saw the Library move to the basement of the St. Albert Community Hall, where it operated for 8 yrs. as an "Associate Library" with a Provincial Grant. In the fall of 1961 the Library moved again, this time to the lower floor of the just completed Civic Centre. The Library at that time had a stock of 2,500 books.

and individuals have donated many and varied items to the Centennial Library.

Forty-two local ladies banded together and collected more than 4,000 books in a house-to-house campaign. The Father Lacombe Chap-ter of the I.O.D.E. is presenting a Fountain to the Library. The Beta Sigma Phi is buying a 16 mm sound projector for use in the Lecture Room. St. Albert Optometrist, Dr. Norman Dolman, has donated a screen.

The C.W.L. is sponsoring an Art Show from which they will select and purchase a painting to be presented to the Library. The Chamber of Commerce is providing a Business Reference Section. Reading chairs have been purchased by the 5th St. Albert Brownie Pack and the 1st St. Albert Brownie Pack. A reference section for Guides and Brownies, which will include books of special interest and a subscription to the Brownie magazine "Alive", will be sponsored by the 7th St. Albert Brownie Pack. An abstract sculpture of Father Lacombe will grace the Library grounds. This is Library grounds. This is the personal Centennial Project of local resident Mr. Guy Voyer. Mr. Voyer has been working for many months on the 8 feet by 4 feet sculpture which is made up into different angles. Metals used are stainless steel, bronze, brass, and copper. Mr. Voyer describes the sculpture, which features in-terior lighting, as a "reflec-tion of lights".

claims "we only hear what they want us to hear". If the Department split is app-roved by Council, Mr. Bakker wants "monthly reports and separate budgets" from both Department heads. Councillor Parkes indicated he will support Mr. Bakker's motion, because he foresees "much more flexibil-ity" if the two become separate. Councillor Donais said he would like to hear from those people who are actively involved in Recreation. He said he is satisfied that the Department has operated much more effectively during the past one and half to two years than ever before. He felt the Town should try to "con-solidate" the Department even more, but sees no need for a Recreation Director. Councillor Gibbon is inclined to agree with the split, but wants "all the facts" before voting on the motion. He reasons that "Mr. Gate works too hard". Mayor Fowler is not in favour of the split "because of economics". The Mayor pointed out that in 95% of the Province the Parks and Recreation Department is combined He said that Mr. Gate definitely is recreation oriented, and knows the Acts as well as any man the Town has ever employed. He added that Mr. Gate has a fine reputation with recreation people in Edmonton and those connected with the Provinc-

Why do not the council annouce their plans for the future, in order of precedonce over a projected period of time? That is if they have such a plan, because remember this, as residents we are the ones who will be compelled to pay for these facilities, over a period of 25 years at interest rates. A pelled to pay for these facilities, over a period of 25 years at interest rates. A Town's Budgeting is similar (but more complicated) than your own household budgeting, the larger number of us know we cannot have every thing we want all at the same time and curtail our spending accordingly, this is a lesson that should be learnt by our present council, to face realities and sanction spending only within the bounds of their budget, thereby causing fewer tax increases.

We the undersigned do not agree with the opinion that our town is large enough to support such lavish spending in addition to the existing projects, and therefore are to petition the council to sub mit this By-law to the vote of the Proprietary Electors of the Town. The petition to be successful will require the signatures of five percent or two hundred and fifty of the Proprietary Electors, whichever is the lesser. We welcome you to support this petition which can be signed between 7 - 10 p.m. Monday thru Friday at either of the residences below, or if you are of the same opinion and willing to help, we can supply you with signature forms.

St. Albert

Next morning the Bishop took matters into his own hands, exercising the privilege of bishops and friends. He sent the Metis back to Fort Pitt with the dogs and equipment, forwarding word also to St. Paul de Cris that Father Lacombe had gone to St. Boniface . . . . Though at St. Paul Father Lacombe, free-lance of the missions, was expected only when he arrived!

Starting for St. Boniface, Father Lacombe was invited to seat himself in the Bishop's cariole; the latter would travel on snowshoes. Father Lacombe protested against enjoying the comforts of the cariole, but he was commanded in obedience to his superior to stay there, and he did

The pleasant motion of the cariole, as the dogs drew it swiftly over the trail, combined with his overwrought muscles to produce a sleep so profound that all day he was unconscious of his voyage and companions. He slept through the noonspell, when the men silently prepared a meal, and when he awoke at the night's camping-place to see Bishop Grandin coming up to the fire with some faggots on his shoulder, he saluted him: "Heh! Haven't we started yet?"

Always quick to recuperate, he was as fresh as a chickadee next morning, and insisted upon yielding the cariole to its owner.

From St. Boniface the Bishop went onto France to secure fresh funds and workers for his missions. In June Father Lacombe returned from YFS

This handsome snowman has a special claim to fame he may be the only genuine snowman ever built in this area in June, against a background of flowering apple trees. Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Montpetit pose with their snowman, built June 9th in the back yard of their home.

A real Snowman built in June

The heavy fall of snow in north central Alberta Friday June 9th was something different on the part of nature who provided four inches of snow during the day. Going out at midnight to cover the tomato plants in his garden, Mr. Lucien Montpetit suddenly got the idea that building a June snowman would be fun, when the apple trees in full bloom would provide a background both attractive and decidedly unusual. To record the event he asked his father Mr. George Montpetit to take a picture.

86-year-old Mr. Bilodeau of Legal cannot recall ever seeing snow on the 9th of June. The precipitation was welcome in the fields as farmers always appreciate June moisture, although rain might be more useful. However very little damage was reported from the heavy

Carter Proposals Affect Insurance

Any increase in taxation on life insurance companies will amount to a direct increase in the personal tax burden of the eleven million Canadians who own policies, the President of the Canadian Life Insurance Association said Monday, May 29.

A. T. Seedhouse said the recommendation of the Carter Royal Commission on Taxation to tax life insurance companies on the same basis as other business enterprises was "a fundamental error".

The families of ordinary wage earners -- including 80 per cent of all Canadian trade unionists -- and the less wellto-do would bear the brunt if the recommendation is implemented by Ottawa, he told the annual meeting of the Association being held at the Seigniory Club here.

"Our interests are in reality those of a broad crosssection of the Canadian population," he added. "This is a fact too often forgotten in the confusion of thought that links our industry with the few rather than with the mas-"It should be recognized that any steps which tend to discourage the protection of dependents through life insurance would increase the cost of welfare," he added. "It would be most unfortunate if theoretical considerations in designing a Canadian tax law should frustrate the very legitimate desires of people to protect themselves adequately from the catastrophic consequences of disability or death."

Mr. Seedhouse said the Carter Commission had in many cases failed to apprecnature life insurance and the contributions it had made to the economic growth of this country as well as guaranteeing individual security to families suddenly deprived of the wage earner through death. The outgoing Association President was particularly critical of the Carter recommendation that life insurance policy dividends should be treated as personal income and be subject to a withhold-ing tax of 15 per cent. This was an inequitable form of double taxation because the dividends essentially were a return of the policyholder's own money. Secondly, said Mr. Seed-house, the proposal to tax as income within the family unit all group life insurance benefits was directly at odds with the long-standing attitude of government towards small estates passing to dependents.

"An undesirable and new form of tax would be imposed on the modest estates of the less well-to-do," he said. Mr. Seedhouse said that at least one-third of all the life insurance in force in Canada is in group plans. More than 80 percent of all trade union members have such insurance including 24 per cent who carry no other kind of life insurance.

"Such provisions do not apply to other forms of insurance. If, for example, an income-producing factory is insured, burns down, and is replaced, no tax is paid on the insurance benefit received he said. "However under Carter, if the 'human asset' who is the family wage-provider dies, group life insur ance, which to a degree replaces his income-earning ability, would be taxed as income in his widow's hands.

"It has been claimed that the Carter proposals, if all the assumptions were valid, would help the ordinary wage earner," said Mr. Seedhouse. "But here is one clear area where, on the contrary, it would penalize his family. It just does not make sense."

Peewee soccer draws good crowd

St. Albert Hercules Pee Wee Soccer Team once again triumphed in a rousing game with Belvedere witnessed by 14 carloads of fans at Paul Kane field on Sunday. Final score was 5-2 for the local team. The team is proving to be among the best in the Edmonton Leage and Coach Alliston is hopeful that they will capture the league crown this year.

The visitors had a lively forward line which brought out the best in half-backs Winters and Hunt who were tireless workers for St. Albert. Centre half "Leadfoot" Verbeek dominated the middle and his powerful clearances enabled the forwards to follow up the ball and pepper shots at the visitor's goal. Little Barry Alliston opened the scoring for St. Albert with a great first time shot from the wing, and inside left. Alan Eschuk, under exhausting conditions. This young man continues to display a fine soccer talent.

Newcomer Mike Kenyon,
only two weeks in Canada, proved a valuable acquisition to the team. In his first game he knotched the only goal of the match with a scorching left foot drive.
Playing Sunday against Meadowlark team the Bantams notched their third straight victory and their record now stands at four wins and one loss. Much of the play was spent in the opposition half, and were it not for their goal keeper, the goal posts and some over anxious shooting by the forwards, the Hercules team could have reached double figures. Scoring for St. Albert were Dorn (2), McKinnon and Love, with final score reading St. Albert 4, Meadowlark 1.
